Provide the information, explanation, or descriptions required for Part I, lines 1a, 1b, 3, 4a, 4b, 4c, 5a, 5b, 6a, 6b, 7, and 8, and for Part II. Also complete this part for any additional information.

Schedule J, Part I, Line 3 - The CEO and the President, like all full-time employees, participate in employee health benefit plans. nonPareil Institute maintains a Pre-tax Premium Plan, in accordance with IRS regulations. The CEO and the President participate in the Pre-tax Premium Plan to the extent that they can, in accordance with the IRS rules regarding highly-compensated employees. The Board has also approved a benefit for employees with children attending nonPareil Institute programs in accordance with the "no-additional-cost services" rules of the IRS. During 2016, the CEO's adult son with autism started attending nonPareil Institute through this benefit. This benefit has been considered taxable to highly compensated employees and, accordingly, its value is included in the reportable compensation for the CEO. While the base compensation for the CEO and the President have not changed since approved by the Board in 2014, their reportable compensation will have changed due to participation in these benefit plans for all full-time employees.

Form 990, Part I, Line 1 - nonPareil Institute changed its mission statement in 2016. The previous mission statement mentioned "technical training, employment and housing" for adults with a diagnosis on the autism spectrum. Opportunities for training, employment and housing for adults with autism require considerable focus on the soft skills - social skills, communication skills, vocational skills, independent living skills, etc. We felt that a more general mission statement - "building better futures" could include our original focus as well as encompass the soft skills necessary to help adults with autism reach their potential.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - This Form 990 and all schedules were circulated to all of the directors via e-mail for their review and comments, with an opportunity for corrections, prior to filing with the IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - At least once per year, each director is provided with a copy of the conflict of interest policy and asked to sign a statement both confirming receipt of the policy and that the director is unaware of any interest that could give rise to a conflict of interest. Any issue that could rise to be a conflict of interest is brought to the board's attention and addressed under the terms of the policy.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15 - The Board has a Compensation Committee composed of independent board members. The Compensation Committee reviews published data on comparable compensation, taking into account that nonPareil Institute is not just a nonprofit but also a technology company, teaching adults with autism how to create technology products for the marketplace. As a result, the CEO and certain other employees will need to have appropriate background in related technology industries in order to train adults with autism, supervise the production of software, and develop the technology level of these adults with autism so that they can participate in marketable projects. The Compensation Committee reviews comparable data from the technology industry, as appropriate, as well as data from the nonprofit industry, and brings a summary of its reviews and its recommendations to the full Board. The employee in question is absent from portions of the board meeting during which there is a discussion and/or vote regarding compensation. There is contemporaneous substantiation of the Board discussion and decisions. In 2014, the above procedure was used to set the compensation of the CEO and President. Their compensation has not changed since that time, so no additional compensation review has been undertaken since then. In 2016, nonPareil hired its Vice President, Advancement, who is not a member of the Board. The position was approved by the full Board, with the discussion of comparable salaries and salary negotiations with this new employee discussed and approved by the executive committee of the Board.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19 - Financial statements for nonPareil Institute are available on its website, as well as the most recently filed Form 990. Governing documents and the conflict of interest policy are available upon request.

Form 990, Part XI, Line 9 - For GAAP, donated advertising services ($120,472) are booked as gift in kind services in revenue and expense. Also for GAAP, donated website design ($4,000) is booked as a gift in kind service in revenue and expense.
